VOL. 72 NO. 28 CANYON, TEXAS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1969 1 SECTION 12 PAGES TEN CENTS

Judge James Denton of Amarillo, right, administers the oath to new Judge Don Dean. Dean was sworn in Tuesday as judge of the 181st District Court, recently established by the Texas Legislature.

Six WT Graduates On Regents Board

Nine men, six of whom received degrees from West Texas State University, were named Monday by Gov. Preston Smith to serve varying terms as members of the newly-created WTSU Board of Regents.

The men, all hailing from various parts of the state, are expected to gather on the university campus during Homecoming Oct. 24-25 and may call their first meeting as a board during that time.

Named to the board were Donald Robert Curry of Fort Worth, Theron Charles Hawkins of Kerrville, Arthur Eugene Quest Jr. of Lubbock, Irby Brewster Carruth of Austin, James E. Jenkins of Amarillo, Patrick Richard Rutherford Jr. of Houston, Cloyce Kennedy Box of Dallas, Thomas Boone Pickens Jr. of Amarillo and B. Raymond Evans of Tulia.

A reception for the board members is tentatively scheduled for the evening of Oct. 24 on the university campus and the board is expected to meet the same afternoon.

Dr. James P. Cornette, WTSU president, said this week he is "deeply grateful for Gov. Smith having appointed a board composed of such excellent people with whom we will be happy to work for the future of West Texas State."

The university president said he is particularly "glad that most of them are ex-students of WTSU and are therefore aware of its needs and interested in it."

He said he feels the board members who did not attend WTSU also have "a very sincere interest in the university."

The board was created in March by an act of the state Legislature. Formerly, WTSU had been governed under a blanket board, the Board of Regents, Texas State Senior Colleges.

Gov. Smith appointed Box, Pickens and Evans to serve six-year terms on the board. Carruth, Jenkins and Rutherford will serve four-year terms and Curry, Hawkins and Quest will serve two-year terms.

Curry, an attorney, is associated with Day & Gandy of Fort Worth. He is a member of the Fort Worth-Tarrant County Junior Bar Association; the Fort Worth-Tarrant County Bar Association; the State Bar of Texas; State Junior Bar of Texas; and the American Bar Association.

A native of Pampa, Curry received a bachelor of science degree from West Texas State University in 1965. He received an LL. B. degree from the University of Texas.

Curry is district chairman, Mustang District, Longhorn Council of the Boy Scouts of America and is a team captain of the American Cancer Society, 1969 crusade. He is married to the former Sue Boland and is a Methodist.

Hawkins, a urologist, was born in Tulia in 1930. He received his B. S. degree from Baylor University in 1956 and graduated from Baylor University College of Medicine in 1956. He also attended West Texas State College. He served internship and four-year urology residency at Hermann Hospital in Houston.

Hawkins is a member of the Kiwanis Club and is a deacon in the Trinity Baptist Church. He has served as a short-term missionary in Ethiopia.

Hawkins and his wife, Joy, have three children, Denine, Bradford and Maria.

Quest, a partner in the firm A. E. Quest & Sons--canvas manufacturing company--was born in Atoka, Oklahoma, in October of 1915. He received a B. S. degree from West Texas State College and did post graduate work on Engineering Science and Management School at Southern Methodist University. He received a medical discharge from the Army.

He was named "Man of the Year" by Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1948; on Executive Board for Boy Scouts of America, South Plains Council and is a member of the Forrest Heights Methodist Church. He has received spe-

Dr. Carruth Talks Of Year

Disruptions Not Expected

Campus disruptions of the type that has hindered academic pursuit at colleges across the country in recent months are not anticipated by officials at West Texas State University this year, Dr. T. Paige Carruth said Saturday.

The Dean of Student Life at WTSU made his remarks to about 40 members of the American Association of University Women assembled at the home of Mrs. W.L. Smith of 2519 9th Ave.

Dr. Carruth said the type of students attending WTSU was the main reason for campus serenity in the past and the expected peacefulness in the future. He characterized the majority of WT students as "intelligent, conservative and patriotic."

"The vast majority of our students won't put up with much disruption. I don't think radicals on our campus--black or white--will get much of a toehold."

He pointed out that if a major disruption should occur the university was prepared to handle it with the means available. He said the Department of Public Safety has procedures "readily available to us if we need them" and that Gov. Preston Smith has indicated the National Guard will be available in emergency situations.

"Disruption and violence will not be tolerated," Dr. Carruth said. "That doesn't mean we won't have any, but if we do it won't take us two or three days to figure out what to do about it.

"I don't anticipate any major disruptions this year--maybe some rocky sledding, but we've always had that."

Concerning black radical groups, Dr. Carruth said that the leaders who are interested in something besides getting publicity will come, talk and be reasonable. He said he has established rapport with some of the black radical leaders and has listened to their grievances some of which had merit and some of which have not.

"You have to understand that when a black calls you a white racist, he's not calling you a dirty name," said the dean. "He's simply applying a label to you and saying you're on the opposite side of the table from him."

Asked by one on the ladies what some of the blacks' complaints had been in the past, Dr. Carruth said there had been complaints about the absence of Negroes on the faculty.

"We've tried for the past three or four years to remedy this and it's been almost impossible for us to come up with enough money to hire any (black faculty).

He cited one case in which a Negro with a Ph. D. was offered a substantial salary to come to WT, but went instead to another school for a larger salary than WT's President Dr. James P. Cornette makes.

He said a black with a Ph. D. was one of the most sought after commodities in America today.

"If you're black and have a Ph. D., you've got the world by

12 Seniors Are Named Top In ROTC

Twelve senior students in the Department of Military Science have been named Distinguished Military Students for not only their academic achievements but for their leadership ability in the ROTC corps at West Texas State University.

The twelve, each of which will graduate at the end of this year, are eligible to become Distinguished Military Graduates.

As Distinguished Military Graduates, the students are allowed to apply for a Regular Army commissions as second lieutenants and are required to serve, if they accept an RA commission, a total of three years' active duty.

Lt. Col. Billy R. Smith, professor of military science at WTSU, announced the distinguished students this week. They will be honored with a ceremony following the weekly Thursday afternoon drill.

Each distinguished military

Tough Panthers Hurt By Injuries

"We'll probably just stall for time," quipped Panhandle head football coach Ron Mills when asked about his chances against Canyon's undefeated Eagles this Friday.

Mills said that he has had every game Canyon has played scouted.

"We've been real impressed with them," he conceded. "They impressed us defensively especially.

"It doesn't look like Canyon has any weak spots."

Mills said that his team, which is 3-1 for the season, has some injured players who may or may not be ready for Friday's tilt at Panhandle.

"But then, that's just part of the game," said the Panther coach.

So far this season Panhandle has downed Fritch 28-0, Claude 38-0 and White Deer 14-0 while losing 14-0 to undefeated Shamrock.

Meanwhile, back at the Eagle nest, Coach Dunny Goode worried about his undefeated but battered troops.

The casualties include defensive end John Lewis, sprained ankle, linebacker Rick Hales, ruptured blood vessel in his knee, defensive back Jerry Carlile, and offensive end Allen Bedell, who have the flu, flanker Pat Blanton, either a broken or dislocated toe, and hard running Al Bayless, who has not fully recovered from a sprained ankle.

"Lewis and Hales may play, but if they do they will probably be only 70 to 75 per cent up to full strength," Goode said.

"This will be Panhandle's game of the year. They will be well coached and they'll be larger than us."

He said the Panthers like to throw the football a lot and that they throw it well.

After viewing films of the 19-8 win over Dalhart last Friday, Coach Goode said middle guard Ron Minier received the highest grade among the defensive downmen with a 98, while Gary Moore excelled with a 99, highest among the defensive backs. Moore intercepted two passes in the Dalhart game and returned one of them for a touchdown.

Top offensive backs were Bayless with a 91 and quarterback Mike Swatzell with a 90.

Chris Hull, center, received a score of 92 and tackle Calvin Yarborough an 89. Hull recovered one fumble and made a tackle when Dalhart intercepted an Eagle pass.

Fletcher Is Alternate To Planning Group

Jim Fletcher was named by Randall County Commissioners as alternate delegate to the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission during Monday's court session.

Previously Randall County Judge Carroll E. Brown and Commissioner Bill Butler had been appointed delegates, but commissioners felt an alternate should be named.

Commissioners, after a brief discussion, also decided to locate a district judge's office on the third floor of the south portion of the courthouse.

Judge Brown had asked that the district judge be located in the commissioner's office on the second floor of the courthouse annex adjacent his office.

Don Dean, an Amarillo attorney, was recently appointed new judge of the 181st District Court and Brown pointed out that either Dean or 47th District Court Judge Gene Jordan will be in Randall County much of the time in the future.

Brown suggested a new door be cut into the second floor office so he and the district court judge could use the same secretary.

But, Commissioner Glenn Dowlen opposed locating the district judge in the commissioner's office.

"We're going to need that office in the future," Dowlen said. "There's lots of room up on the

Woody Pond Cares About Kids

Probation Key Is Love

BY PAUL BASCUS

The first ingredient in making a career of dealing with children is a love of children, according to Woody Pond, Randall County's first juvenile probation officer.

"You have to love them and care what happens to them," says Pond.

The children having the most contact with Pond were usually in trouble when they first met him. That was the reason they met him because his job entails supervising, counseling, and helping to steer such children toward futures of productivity and usefulness as citizens of the community.

"Kids are like everybody else. If you show them you mean what you say, if you're honest and truthful, you'll get their confidence. Don't get a child caught in a half-way situation by telling him one thing and doing another.

"Children need to be loved and disciplined, but you must always have the child's best interest in mind."

Pond was hired by the county commissioners court to fill a newly created position in March of 1967 and Woody says he has never regretted his decision to take the job.

When he took the job he had a case load of 16 juveniles. That case load has grown steadily since then to the point where he presently has a total of 47 boys and girls on official probation, administrative probation or in court custody.

"A child is on official probation," Woody explains, "after he has been declared a delinquent child at a formal court hearing and has been given a conditional release.

"A child on administrative probation sometimes has had a court hearing, but was not found to be a delinquent child. The judge may have decided the child was in need of supervision by the probation department or someone other than the parents.

"Children in custody of the court are those the court has ruled have not been properly cared for and are taken from the custody of their parents by formal court action."

As a probation officer for such children Woody must be a family counselor, a disciplinarian, an officer of the court, a truant officer and just a plain old dependable friend in time of need.

"In addition to loving and caring about children," the husky World War II veteran says, "a probation officer needs to have an understanding nature, a knowledge of human nature and education in such things as psychology and sociology. He should also be familiar with all

Canyon Youth Admits Texas A&M Explosion

BY CARROLL WILSON

An 18-year-old Canyon youth attending Texas A&M University in College Station has admitted to being one of the four students who set off explosives early Tuesday and rocked the A&M campus.

Christopher R. Tully, a 1969 Canyon High School graduate, has been suspended indefinitely from the South Texas university along with three other freshman students.

No charges have been filed in connection with the explosion, which broke 31 windows in four dormitories about 2 a.m. Tuesday.

Tully told officer he obtained ingredients for the explosives from near Canyon last summer.

Also admitting to the explosion were Stephen D. Cervantes, 18, of Port Isabella, a marine transportation major, William K. Chambless, 19, of Hobbs, N. M., an aero space engineering major, and William D. Huntington, 18, an electrical engineering major from Snyder.

The explosion, which rocked the Corps of Cadets area in the southeast corner of the campus, is believed by school officials to be a prank which backfired on the four students.

Dean of Students James P. Hannigan said the youths signed statements admitting their roles in igniting a box of plastic type explosives.

Suspension of the students, although indefinite, does not mean the students will be denied readmission to Texas A&M in the future.

The four will have the right to appeal their suspension to a Faculty-Staff Appeals Committee.

It was not revealed late Wednesday whether charges would be filed in the incident.

Assistant Campus Security Chief Morris A. Maddox credited members of the corps of Cadets with providing key information in identifying the four youths. He said the cadets related information to civilian advisors who in turn worked with campus security officers.

Dean Hannigan discounted early reports that the explosion might have been the work of anti-Reserve Officer Training Corps students.

"Nothing could be further from the truth," he said. "We are very pleased to find that our record of strong support for ROTC remains unblemished."

Tully, who is the son of Dr. Phillip C. Tully of near Canyon, told officers he and Cervantes ignited the explosives. He is a nuclear engineering major at A&M.

Officers said Tully also told them he and Chambless, his roommate, experimented with the explosives Saturday in a field south of College Station.

He told campus security officers they conducted four test firings with no damage other than flying dirt.

Maddox said the explosives had been stored in Huntington's car. Officials confiscated all remaining explosives in the students' possession.

The youths indicated through their statements to officers that the ignition of the explosives was a prank.

According to reports, the blast shattered glass for more than 200 feet and damaged two 80-foot tall buildings. The blast blew a hole about four inches deep in the ground.

Big, Tough Aztecs To Meet Buffaloes

West Texas State University football coach Joe Kerbel has said the San Diego State Aztecs will be the finest club to play in Buffalo Bowl since the stadium opened in 1958.

Kerbel could well be correct as the Aztecs have a record to back him up.

Led by quarterback Dennis Shaw, San Diego State has romped past a pair of foes this season, winning 49-0 over Los Angeles State and 55-21 over San Jose State, and hold a 37-1-1 mark in their last 39 games.

Shaw, who is considered by some professional scouts as the nations' top pro quarterback prospect, and his teammates invade Buffalo Bowl for an 8 p.m. battle Saturday.

The Buffaloes are returning home after a one-game swing on the road and have pushed their season record above the .500 mark at 2-1. The Buffs downed Wichita State's stubborn Shockers, 24-14, in Wichita, Kan., Saturday afternoon.

Besides their explosive offense, led by Shaw and fellow All-America candidate center Bill Pierson, the Aztecs' defense against the rushing game has been fantastic this year.

Los Angeles State was held to a minus 50 yards rushing and San Jose State had a minus eight yards on the ground.

West Texas came out of the Wichita game with no injuries and Kerbel started his squad working Monday with a heavy emphasis being placed on pass defense and a rushing offense.

Buff fullback Duane Thomas bulled for 42 yards against the Shockers and became the seventh leading rusher in the school's history. Those yards give him a career total of 1,516 --212 this year. He replaces Joe

FROM THE CANYON RIM

I think Governor Smith has given West Texas State University a strong board of regents.

Members of the board range in age from 26 to 69. They represent various walks of life. Six of the nine are graduates of West Texas State University.

On the board is an attorney, a physician, a manufacturer, a school superintendent, a certified public accountant, two oil operators, head of a large construction firm, and the owner of a far flung agricultural store operation.

There will be no generation gap on the new board of regents.

Hugh Curry of Fort Worth at 26 represents youth on the board. He is a 1965 graduate of West Texas State and is now practicing law in Fort Worth.

Irby Carruth is 69 and has for a number of years been superintendent of schools at Austin. He served as superintendent of Canyon schools at one time.

Mrs. Carruth is the former Margaret Harper of Canyon and a son, Stanley, practices law here.

Three members of the board are in their thirties, two are in their forties and two in their fifties.

A discerning glance reveals that a great deal of careful thought went into the selection of the first West Texas State board of regents. This undoubtedly explains the long delay in their appointment.

Although I'm not acquainted with Dr. Theron Hawkins, the physician on the board, I've known his family for a long time.

His father is Willis A. Hawkins of Hart. Mr. Hawkins is a well-known Plains farm leader. A brother, Willis, Jr., is in the bank at Hart and is a member of the WTSU Ex-Students Association board of directors.

Dr. Hawkins' mother used to work for me as a correspondent writing The Hart News when I was publisher of the newspaper at Olton.

Dr. Hawkins is nephew of Judge Meade F. Griffin, one of the state's most astute jurists. He also is a cousin of Mariellen Garner, wife of Gary Garner who is director of West Texas State University Bands.

I'll be taking a sentimental journey back to Morton in Cochran County Friday. It will be homecoming at the old school and at halftime at the football game I will have the honor of presenting a portrait of Lt. Col. George A. Davis to the school.

I went to school with Davis although he graduated a couple of years ahead of me.

We called him Jiggs. He was a little guy, about 130 pounds, but the only year he played football he made all-district halfback even though the gridiron prowess of his Indian teammates left something to be desired that year.

In spite of his being a little fellow in a game for giants, Jiggs led the district in yardage gained that season. After high school he went on to college a year or so at Searcy, Ark.

When World War II broke out he joined the Air Corps and shot down seven enemy planes in the Pacific. He was a major when he and his sabre jet went to Korea.

In Korea he gunned down a dozen enemy jets in 16 days and was dubbed America's "Jet Ace of Aces."

He was killed in action over Korea and was posthumously awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Colonel Davis led his fighter squadron like he led his high school football team, with cool dedication. He gave unselfishly of himself to his family, his church and his country--he gave his very life.

Colonel George Andrew Davis, Jr., represents the epitome of Americanism.

In times like these we need Gene Howe and Will Rogers back.

I can barely remember it but Will Rogers kept America laughing when there was very little to laugh about.

The same might be said for Howe, who as Old Tack writing in The Amarillo Globe declared that there were no skunks on earth as odiferous as Texas Panhandle skunks.

Howe said Panhandle sandstorms were the tallest, blackest, dirtiest sandstorms on earth. He swore that Panhandle women developed into the most beautiful women on earth solely because of the exercise they got from leaning into strong Panhandle winds.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

Emotional depressions are probably as prevalent in America as the common cold. And, like the cold, unless complications arise, one usually recovers whether or not he has treatment.

Depressions, like colds, vary in duration and intensity. And one can no more "snap out" of a depression at will than he can "throw off" a cold when he likes. But there are medications that can alleviate much of the discomfort of a cold, and there are also "medications" that can lift the misery of a depression, and if not cure it, perhaps shorten its duration.

Everyone should be aware that he has a breaking point. And whether one's stress tolerance is high or low, he should exercise diligent care that nothing push him too near the limit of his endurance.

Depressions vary from brief "blue moods" to chronic, uncontrollable emotional disturbances that eventually lead to the psychiatric ward.

Everyone is at least "three people." Man is physical, emotional, and spiritual. Regardless of the source of a depression, eventually all three areas become involved. Peptic ulcers and migraine headaches are definitely physical, yet one is not likely to be cured of either until he eliminates the emotional stress that created them in the first place.

When one suffers from a depression--mild or severe--he should first ascertain the kind and the source. Basically, depressions are classifed as reactive, endogenous, or neurotic.

In a reactive depression one may have suffered the loss of a loved one, familiar surroundings, health, finances, vocation, status, or some other very tangible deprivation. Time, and the understanding and encouragement of one's associates usually effects a cure.

An endogenous depression is an organic or physical disturbance of the nervous function. It is not likely to improve without professional medical help. In fact, any depression that tends to be chronic merits the attention of the family physician. The best psychotherapy is not likely to suffice for a glandular imbalance, a brain tumor, lack of sleep or malnutrition.

A renowned internal specialist estimated that 90% of all physical ills begin with emotional maladjustment. And a recent researcher found that about 80% of accidental injuries were the result of emotional turmoil.

The neurotic depression is probably the most common, and the most difficult to relieve. For one reason, the neurotic is usually able to function well enough in society that the layman is seldom aware he is ill; he just thinks he is obnoxious. In fact, the neurotic himself rarely recognizes his condition. He is usually quite certain he is fine--has no problems at all; it is the other people who are at fault.

There are always a few people no one can please. But if one finds himself unable to relate comfortably to the majority of people at home, at work, and in the community, he could be the one with the problems.

One fairly reliable criterion as to one's needs of psychotherapy is if he is depressed and knows he has ample reason for depression (loss of a loved one, incurable illness, insurmountable debts, etc.), he may just need professional help in the area of his problem. But if he is depressed for no good reason that he knows, a psychiatrist is indicated.

There have been so many recent incidents of men going berserk and murdering their families, friends, strangers, and especially themselves that it behooves everyone to be concerned about his emotional stability. But anyone who has comfortable, productive love and work relationships can rest assured his emotional health is good.

Depressions, like colds, cause untold misery, and wasted time, energy, and human lives that could be avoided. Science has provided many wonderful sources of relief. The victims owe it to themselves, their loved ones, and society, to seek help.

And if the depressed one refuses to seek help for himself, those responsible for his welfare should respond as they would if he had a broken leg--get help for him.

CCA Membership Drive Underway

Membership campaign for new members in the Canyon Community Concert Association will begin Sunday evening, October 12, with a worker's dinner at the Hunsley Hills Country Club.

The dinner, which begins at 6:45 p.m., will have as special guest Mrs. Shirley Callahan of Columbia Artists, Community Concert Association representative.

The dinner will precede the new member drive to be held in the city throughout next week. The new member drive headquarters will be at Southwestern Public Service where CCA members will operate a membership booth.

Memberships are $10 for adults and $5 for students.

WT Math Society Reception Today

Lambda Mu mathematical society at West Texas State University will host a reception for new members and prospective members at 3:45 this afternoon in Room 310, University Complex South.

Vivian Eggemeyer, president, will be in charge of a business meeting after the reception.

Kelli Campbell and Connie Stork pat "Chief", dalmation of the Canyon Fire Department while Kevin Carroll and Brook Burnett talk with "Sparkey" and Roland Black, manager of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

"Sparkey" And "Chief" Visit Elementary Schools

"Sparkey", dressed in fireman's clothing, and a dalmation dog by the name of "Chief" met the children of Rex Reeves Elementary School Monday afternoon and Gene Howe Elementary School Tuesday afternoon in an effort to impress on the children the dangers that lurk in fire.

Tommy Joe Platt, wearing a dalmation mask and better known under such conditions as "Sparkey", shook hands and visited with the children.

Men with the Canyon Fire Department were on hand for the demonstration as well as manager of the Chamber of Commerce, Roland Black.

Captain Joe Rice showed the children how to put out a fire with the use of a common household product, baking soda.

Fire Chief, Jack Jennings, presented the children with a fire extinguisher kit to be made of a coffee can and a box of baking soda while Jim Christopher, fireman, acted as emcee.

"Chief", the third of a series of dogs owned by the department in the past five years, was raised by Captain and Mrs. Joe Rice. He is the son of "Duke", his predecessor who died of an illness. Before Duke was Smokey who was run over and killed.

As Christopher demonstrated the electronic siren, "Chief's" ears perked up as if to say, "Let's Go!" But he had a short wait as demonstrations for each of the six grade levels took approximately thirty minutes per grade.

Umbarger School was visited Wednesday.

Saturday, the firemen will have a parade in downtown Canyon. The parade will be preceded by a bicycle decorating contest. Parade time is 10:30 a.m.

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State University, will be in Washington, D. C., through Friday attending the National Council of Education.

Bruce Fuller Wins Honors In Block-Bridle Contest

Bruce Fuller, representing Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, won first place honors Tuesday night in the final go-round of bull riding during the annual two-day Block and Bridle Rodeo at West Texas State University.

John Stokes of Jarrett Hall was second in the bull riding event with Archie Smith of Block and Bridle placing third.

Other results are as follows:

BAREBACK BRONC--1, Jerry Lawrence, Jarrett Hall, 38 points; 2, James Patterson, Independent, 36 points.

BULLDOGGING--1, Ken Gill, Block and Bridle, 2.65 seconds; 2, Jim Brazil, Independent, 7.0 seconds; 3, Jerry Whatley, Stafford Hall, 8.9 seconds.

CALF TYING--1, Jim Brazil, Independent, 5.5 seconds; 2, Mike Goad, Phi Delta Theta, 5.6 seconds; 3, Roland Reichardt, Block and Bridle, 6.6 seconds.

WILD MARE RACE--1, Dickie Jones, Larry Pirkle and Ken Gill for Phi Delta Theta, 2 min. 1.2 sec.; 2, Billy Gass, James Killingsworth, and James Sides for Lambda Chi Alpha, seven minutes.

GOAT SACKING--1, Jan Murphy and Linda McEachern, 8.3 seconds; 2, Sue Lust and Connie Cope, 8.9 seconds; 3, Kathy Poole and Becky Rahlfs, 9 seconds.

Westside HD Has Meeting

Westside Home Demonstration Club met last Wednesday in the Ed Bourn home with Mrs. Dick Barrett, club president, in charge of the business meeting.

Roll call was answered with "what I try to do each day to relax".

The council report was given by Mrs. Lewis Tucek and the remainder of the meeting was directed by the recreation committee as the group sang songs, played games, had a white elephant auction and drew chances on a hostess gift.

Next meeting for the club will be October 15 at the Farm Bureau Building with Mrs. Lewis Tucek as hostess.

Attending were a guest, Mrs. Mattie Bourn, and members including Mesdames Dick Barrett, Ed Bourn, W. A. Branum, R. A. Burrus, B. A. Burrus, Paul Cornett, Paul Glovier, Lewis Harvey, R. O. McKay, Ray Metcalf, T. J. Myers, Fred Richard and Lewis Tucek.

Faith Chapel Begins Gospel Series

Rev. Gene Waterbury will begin a series of evangelistic meetings Tuesday evening, October 14, in Canyon at Faith Chapel.

The public is invited to attend the services which will begin at 7 p.m. daily throughout the week with regular worship hours observed on Sunday.

Rev. Waterbury is pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle of Granby, Missouri. He has served on the faculty of Bible School at Baxter Springs, Kansas for several years and his ministry to youth has called him to several states. He has recently returned from a study tour of Europe and the Holy Land.

An outstanding feature of the Campus Crusade will be the nightly appearance of the Faith Student Choir. The singing group will perform each service and J.E. James leads the choir of West Texas State University students.

Marcus Adair, student center director, extends an invitation to university and community residents.

LaGrone Funeral Chapel
1702 5th AVE CANYON

An occasional comment reveals that many people believe a funeral service follows a definite routine.

It may surprise you to know, however, that no two funerals are alike. Each service brings its own requirements. The desires of the family are given first consideration, always. In addition, the clergyman's requests must be considered. Then the many details must be arranged around those requests.

Each service, therefore, is distinct and follows a program of its own.

Respectfully,

Date Changed For Carnival

Halloween carnival, sponsored by the Canyon Study Club, has been changed from the traditional night of Halloween to be held in the city Thursday night, October 30.

The site, according to chairman Mrs. Durwood Henderson, has not been confirmed yet. Those local groups planning to sponsor booth activities at the carnival have now been increased to include the Canyon Country Club, National Secretaries Association, Sue Hite Club, Chi Omega, Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, Alpha Delta Pi and Heritage Woman's Club.

In addition to a variety of booths, the carnival sponsoring club will also have a Halloween Queen's contest whereby each booth sponsor may submit a queen candidate in the penny-a-vote judging.

The sponsoring club will request a 25 percent fee for booth space, according to Mrs. Henderson. Other clubs interested in sponsoring a booth should make arrangements with Mrs. Henderson as soon as possible.

Canyon Scouts Included In Atomic Energy Study

Canyon Boy Scouts will be among those from the area taking part in a four-week Atomic Energy Merit Badge Seminar to be climaxed by a week end trip to Los Alamos, New Mexico, the historic birth place of nuclear power.

The first such council wide Atomic Energy Merit Badge Seminar to be presented to the boy scouts of the Llano Estacado Council is being prepared by some 25 atomic scientists and engineers of Mason & Hanger-Silas Mason Co., Inc., and Sandia Corporation. They are all active scouters employed with the AEC Pantex Plant.

The four sessions will cover atomic history, detection of radiation, protection from atomic exposure, reactors, the peaceful uses of atomic power, and careers in nuclear energy.

Scouts will also build electroscopes and model reactors, and grow plants from seeds exposed to atomic radiation. As part of their lab work, the boys will work with cloud chambers and use Geiger counters to locate sources of radiation.

The scientists and engineers of Mason & Hanger-Silas Mason Co., Inc., led by Chester Canada, Les Myers, Leonard Parsons, and Herman Phillips will conduct the seminar with instructions, films, demonstrations, and patrol size lab sessions.

Together with the boys' adult leaders, they will also serve as merit badge counselors, to help each scout qualify for the highly coveted merit badge.

Beginning October 18th, the seminar will be conducted at Polk Street Methodist Church in Amarillo for four Saturday mornings. Attendance will be limited to the first 300 scouts who register through their leaders at the Council Office.

Upon satisfactory completion of the Merit badge requirements, the scouts will be given the opportunity to visit Los Alamos (November 14-15). Plans for the week-end trip include an overnight stop at Kirtland Air Force Base in Albuquerque, N. M., a tour of the Sandia Corporation facilities there, a visit to the Atomic Energy Museum in Los Alamos and a scenic side trip to Bandolier National Monument.

Posse Honors Allens

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Allen were the honored guests at a potluck supper Saturday evening at the Randall County Sheriff's Posse clubhouse.

About 70 attended the affair which included a series of photographs and slides being projected on the screen depicting "Those Were The Days" from the early days of the posse's formation.

The Allens were presented with an engraved silver tray stating, "Horsemanship, Sportsmanship and Citizenship, R. B. and Louise Allen, The outstanding leadership you have shown has inspired and will continue to inspire each of us. The Randall County Sheriff's Posse".

Leroy Gross, president of the RCSP, made the presentation and also awarded a charm to Janice Allen, daughter of the Allens who is currently serving as national queen.

The Allens will be moving to Dallas soon, where he will assume full-time duties as executive director of a consolidation of the Texas Hardware and Implement Association and the Tri-State Hardware and Implement Association.

Coach Praises Defense At Booster Meeting

Dunny Goode told about 50 members of the Eagle Booster Club Tuesday night that the only things that had stopped the Eagle offense thus far this season have been major penalties and fumbles.

He had nothing but praise for his defensive team.

"Our defense has set up about half of our scores," the Canyon High head coach said.

Looking ahead to this Friday's game with Panhandle, Goode said, "We sincerely believe Panhandle will be the best team we've played, outside of Phillips."

He said the Panthers would be bigger than the Canyon team and pointed out that their fullback Roy Bednorz is considered an all-state candidate.

"They'll be well-coached and they'd love nothing better than to beat us," Goode said.

In viewing the film of the Eagles' 19-8 victory over Dalhart, Goode repeatedly pointed out the outstanding play of power-running Al Bayless and defensive middle guard Ron Minier.

Clark Mires, coach of the undefeated, unscored upon junior varsity called the game with Dumas this Thursday the key game of the season.

"We feel that if we can beat Dumas, we'll be over the hump," Mires said. "We're real happy with the way the boys have been playing. They're playing as well as we could ask them to."

Pigeon Picker Draws 15 Teams

The team of David Levens, Jim Walsh and Bill Roach took top honors last weekend in the Pigeon Picker golf tournament at Hunsley Hills.

The trio finished with a score of 122 for 36 holes to take the top prize of $40 gift certificates for each member of the team.

Fifteen teams competed.

The runner-up team consisted of Bill Epps, Vance Hall and Martin Epps followed by Sid Patterson, Burl Southern and Jerry Jacobs.

Low gross honors went to Bill Epps and Porter Vaughn with scores of 150 each, while the low net score was 143 by David Levens and Jerry Jacobs.

Three Top Buff Game In Wichita

A bombing fullback, a conscientious safety and tough linebacker were named top West Texas State University players in last Saturday's Buff-Wichita State game.

Head Buff Coach Joe Kerbel said Ram Falafine, a 5-11, 210-pound, Honolulu, Hawaii, sophomore, is top offensive player on the squad in the Buff win 24-14 over the Shockers.

Troy Anderson, a ball conscious little safety from Siloam Springs, Ark., and Harold Stuart, a junior linebacker from Odessa, tied for outstanding defensive player honors.

Kerbel announced the top team members at the Monday night Buffalo Touchdown Club meeting in Canyon.

Falafine, who started for the first time this season last Saturday, picked up 37 yards in the Wichita game and is credited by Kerbel with good blocking.

Anderson, a 5-11, 180-pound senior, blocked an extra point attempt, intercepted two Wichita passes and recovered a fumble.

Stuart is credited with seven unassisted and eight assisted tackles from his linebacking spot.

The three outstanding players appeared before the Touchdown Club and gave their feelings about the Wichita game as well as the game coming up this weekend against San Diego State.

All agreed that the offensive Buffs have made vast improvement over previous outings and that San Diego, as well as being big, will be the toughest game of the season.

Kerbel was obviously pleased with the win over WSU.

"A lot of good things happened to us," he said. "As the clock was running out, they had two time outs and they didn't use them."

Kerbel also credited ace Buff quarterback Clarence Redic with saving the game in the closing minutes by calling a play, which Kerbel was unable to send in to the huddle.

The coach said Redic called "the perfect play" as Olan Thompson scooted around end for the final WTSU score, the touchdown which put the game on ice for the Buffs.

"I think we've shown great improvement," Kerbel said. "It's possible we can't defeat San Diego State, but I honestly believe we have a good chance to beat them."

Kerbel read through the starting line-up for the San Diego team, and said "they're big and strong."

He called San Diego "the best team probably to ever play in Buffalo Bowl."

But, he said, "we're going to try to whip hell out of them."

Kerbel was optimistic about drills this week, noting advances made in the past three weeks, following the Buffs' opening game loss to Northern Arizona.

He was also optimistic about next year's Buffaloes.

After noting that this year, the WTSU team suffered the loss of nine good players, he said that next year only four men will be missing from the defensive unit and only one man from the offensive unit.

The coach said Don Moon, 6-2, 213-pound tight end, may be lost to the team the remainder of the season due to a strained and possibly torn ligament behind his knee.

The Buffs meet San Diego at 8 p.m. Saturday in Buffalo Bowl.

Some Student Unrest Due To Vietnam

Francis Keppel, former U.S. commissioner of education, said Monday that the war in Vietnam is one of the principal causes of student unrest on college campuses.

Keppel, 53, commissioner from 1962 to 1965, said the war in Vietnam is "more of a trigger for student unrest than racial intolerance."

"It would be a mistake to assume that the whole of the cause of the unrest is the war, but it would be just as much a mistake not to think it is one of the reasons," he said in an interview.

Keppel, board chairman of the General Learning Corp. of New York, and two associates were invited by West Texas State University to present the services the management consultant firm can render. Accompanying Keppel were Bob Ellis, director of General Learning's educational services division, and David Callahan, senior consultant in the division.

They met with a committee of university officials appointed by President James P. Cornette to study recommendations of the Committee of 67.

The Committee of 67 recommended retaining a management consultant firm to "provide the objectivity and leadership in a self-evaluation effort of the university administration to position the institution to meet new challenges in serving this rapidly developing region and state."

The president's committee includes vice presidents Virgil Henson, Dr. Walter Juniper and Dr. Emmitt D. Smith and Dr. J. B. Roberts, dean of the Graduate School, Dr. C. C. Callarman, dean of the School of Business, Dr. Kenneth Laycock, dean of the School of Teacher Education, Dr. T. Paige Carruth, dean of student life, Dr. Ray Malzahn, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, Dr. John Green, dean of the School of Fine Arts, and Dr. Donald Cates, dean of admissions and registrar.

Big Bayless Wants More Action

BY PAUL BASCUS

Al Bayless started playing football in the 7th grade and would have started earlier, maybe with one of the Kids, Inc. teams, but he was too big.

"I was always bigger than most of the other guys till about the 9th grade. Then everybody started catching up," said the Canyon Eagles' bread-and-butter power back.

Of course, catching up with Bayless is one thing--bringing him down on the football field is quite another.

The 5-11, 198-pounder started off slowly this year but has picked up steam in each game until by last Friday night against a hard-hitting Dalhart team he was literally running over everybody who got in his way.

Bayless agrees with Coach Dunny Goode that the early success of speedy, shifty halfback David Erwin has helped make things easier for him.

In the last two games, with the opposition keying on Erwin's dangerous sweeps, Bayless wreaked havoc up the middle.

Against the Dalhart Wolves he bulldozed for 105 yards in only 15 carries.

Coach Goode pointed out while showing a film of the game that on Bayless' touchdown plunge from the one-yard line he missed the hole, but just took the tacklers on into the end zone with him.

The soft-spoken 17-year-old made one run last Friday that Goode says is as fine a run anyone will ever see anywhere.

"It was supposed to be an inside play, but it looked like the hole was closed so I went to the outside. This guy was coming in low so I just lowered my head and I hit him about the face mask. After that I guess I stepped on him or something. I just kept going."

He didn't mention that when three Wolves finally caught him he bulled his way for five more yards before finally going down to cap a 15-yard gain, most of which came after he pulverzied the first would-be tackler.

Unlike many backs, who can be stopped seven or eight times and then boost their average with a 50-yard gain, Bayless gets his in small chunks, mostly of four and six yards.

"I just don't have the speed to go all the way," Bayless admits openly. "Usually I go into the line looking for the hole. If it's not there, I try to take the closest way to make a gain. On a short yardage situation, I just hit in there hard and if there isn't a hole, I try to just make one on my own."

At the latter, he is hardly a classic failure.

Bayless is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bayless and they live about three miles west of Canyon. He's the oldest of six children- three boys and two girls.

He lived in Amarillo until about the fourth grade until the family first came to Canyon. The Bayless family moved to Gruver during his freshman and sophomore years and returned to Canyon in time for him to play football here as a junior.

"I've learned a lot of football in the past two years, but I feel like I could learn a lot more. Just when it seems I'm about to really learn what it's all about it's all coming to an end," the senior said sadly.

College football? He said he had thought about it and that if he did play he had hopes of making it as a down lineman or a linebacker.

He plays no defense now, but he did when he was younger. He said defense seemed easier because a player doesn't have to remember as much as he does on offense.

"It's harder, but I guess it's more rewarding to play on offense," Bayless said, before adding wistfully, "but sometimes I get tired of taking all the punishment and would like to dish some out once in a while."

It's obvious he hasn't talked recently to some of the people who have to tackle him.

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News about it. Telephone 655-2141, or stop by the News office on the west side of the square.

Tuesday afternoon was the meeting date for the Llano Home Demonstration Club that met in the home of Mrs. Bernard Smith. Co-hostess was Mrs. E. Chapman.

The business meeting was conducted by club president, Mrs. Roy Ransom. Discussion was held on a bake sale to be held November 5.

Mrs. E. Chapman presented the program on decoration of eggshells for the holiday seasons. There was a drawing for the door prize and the winner, Mrs. Roy Ransom, won all the eggshells that had been decorated during the session.

The next meeting will be held October 21st in the home of Mrs. James Sorrell with Mrs. Donald Detten as co hostess. The program will be given by Randall County Home Demonstration Agent, Becky Hall.

Refreshments of spiced cake, hot spiced tea, and coffee were served to Mrs. Don Ransom, Mrs. E. Chapman, Mrs. Newton Harrell, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Roy Ransom, Mrs. James Sorrell, Mrs. Donald Detten, Mrs. Luther Lowry, Mrs. George Lacey, Mrs. Furr Standridge, Mrs. "Red" Whelchel, Mrs. Frank Bagwell, Mrs. Jorene Smith, and Mrs. Bernard Smith.

YWA Members Have Program

Members of the High School Young Women's Association of the First Baptist Church held their first meeting for the year at the home of Mrs. A.K. Goodman last Wednesday evening.

"Here Am I" was the title of the program of the evening with Carla Lee reading scriptures and other members on the program explaining the meanings of those read.

Refreshments of hot spiced tea and fruitcake, topped with whipped cream were served to Lynette Slack, Martha Sykes, Janna Johnson, Barbara Anderson, Carla Lee, Gail Fite, Debbie Whisler, Janie Malone, Mrs. Orrell Vise, and Mrs. David Hunt.

Several of the members did work for their Mission Action program by cleaning the Youth Activities Building at the church. Those participating were Martha Sykes, Janna Johnson, Janie Malone, and leaders, Mrs. Vise and Mrs. Hunt.

Two-Man Art Show

A two-man show of paintings and drawings by Don Ray and Lloyd Cook will be held October 12-31 at New Mexico Junior College in Hobbs, New Mexico.

A reception for the two artists will be Sunday from 2-4 p.m.

The show will include 30 oil, watercolor and acrylic paintings and ten drawings.

Don Ray of Canyon has shown paintings in regional and national exhibitions. This exhibit was awarded the artist on the merit of his work in the Llano Estacado Annual show in Hobbs in 1968.

Lloyd Cook, an Amarillo artist, is best known for his transparent watercolors and drawings.

Foliage Tour For Troop 66

Boy Scout Troop 66 spent last week end on a 600 mile foliage tour in the scout bus.

The group toured Philmont Scout Ranch where they saw about 30 buffalo in a herd and a herd of antelope and then went through Cimmaron Canyon, Eagles Nest and took a city tour in Taos, New Mexico where the scouts saw numerous Indians on the streets. They then travelled to Sipapu Ski Area in Carson National Forest and camped in nearby Aqua Piedra campsite near Tres Ritas.

The scout church service Sunday morning was conducted by Lee Roy Moreland, scoutmaster, on the mountainside near the campsite after which the group had lunch in Las Vegas, New Mexico and returned to Canyon by way of Conchas Dam and Tucumcari.

Scouts participating were Rex McPherson, Ben Prichard, Frank Prichard, Alvin Mardis, Allen Mardis, Chris Moreland, Phil Davis, Jeff Cates, Steve Ross, Jay Langen and Mark Collier.

Adult sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mardis and Katheryn, and Mrs. Ines Cataldi.

Frost Reports Unofficial

Some unofficial reports this week of the fall's first frost remained just that as of noon Wednesday--unofficial.

The U. S. Weather Bureau of Amarillo Air Terminal recorded no frost and a spokesman said that with the minimum temperature this week being 45 degrees, it would be highly unlikely that there was any frost in the area.

"It's difficult to say that there absolutely was no frost in the area," the spokesman said, "but with the temperature that high above freezing it would be highly unlikely. If there was some frost it was only in localized areas."

He said the weather bureau had received a couple of reports of frost from Amarillo and a few from Dumas and other places north of Amarillo Tuesday morning.

CCTA Dinner Tuesday For Faculties

About 160 attended the Canyon Classroom Teachers Association covered dish dinner Tuesday evening at Rex Reeves Elementary School.

Included among special guests were the school board, administrative personnel of the schools of the district, retired teachers, and new teachers with the schools.

Retired teachers and the 37 new faculty members were introduced on the program by Inell Zevely and get-acquainted entertainment and games were led by Guyda Webb. Tables for the affair featured pictures of members of the CCTA and administrative personnel.

Donna Wilson, CCTA president, was in charge of the business session during which a report from the legislative committee was given by Mrs. Gene Price and a report on membership was given by Marian Schumacher.

The membership report showed a "100 percent membership of CCTA members in the Texas State Teachers Association, a 100 percent membership of local teachers in CCTA, an increase in membership in the National Educators Association with 29 new life members in NEA from the CCTA."

Alma Perkins, president of the Randall County unit of TSTA, gave a report on the year's programs upcoming and Denny Park announced that the first unit meeting of TSTA will be held at West Texas State University November 4 when Lee Hicks of the state TSTA will speak on "professional ethics."

During the meeting, classroom teachers expressed appreciation to the school board and administration for new salary increases among teachers.

Hostess committee for the meeting included Bonnie Hinger, chairman, Zoe Henry, Libby Read, Beth Posey, Charlotte Brantley and Gloria McGill.

Next CCTA meeting will be at the Canyon High School building December 2 at 4 p.m. when the program is slated to be presented by the Canyon Junior High Choir and a panel of Future Teachers Association members.

Funeral Rites For Ray Barclay

Funersl services for Ray Alfred Barclay, 27, a Vega rancher, were held Tuesday at N. S. Griggs and Sons chapel in Amarillo with Bill R. Prudy of Clarkdale Baptist Church officiating.

Graveside services for Mr. Barclay were held that afternoon in Buffalo Cemetery, 20 miles north of Erick, Oklahoma. He was found dead Saturday inside his car parked in his barn at his ranch, 15 miles south of Vega, and an autopsy to determine the cause of death was ordered by acting Deaf Smith Justice of the Peace Bill Rowland.

Survivors include his sons, Dennis of the home, Douglas of Boys Ranch; brothers, Lewis of Stockton, California, Eugene of Amarillo; a sister, Mrs. Phyllis Dugan of Canyon; and his mother, Mrs. Jewel Barclay of Canyon.

THOMPSON'S OF CANYON

"Back To School" night at Gene Howe Elementary School brought a large crowd of parents out to meet the teachers and to learn what takes place in the individual classrooms. This is the classroom of Mrs. Joe Shoemaker and the parents are listening to an explanation of the importance of the SRA reading program.

"Back To School Nite" For Gene Howe

Pledge of Allegience led by Boy Scout Troop 130 opened the first Parent-Teacher meeting of the 1969-1970 session at Gene Howe Elementary School Monday evening with a standing room only crowd.

An invocation was given by James Keith before PTA president, Mrs. C.W. Hefley conducted the business meeting.

Luther Lawless, principal of the school welcomed the parents and introduced the teachers. New teachers at Gene Howe this year are Mrs. Loy Bell, Mrs. Nancy Piercy, Mrs. Mary Jo Smith, Mrs. Gloria Taylor, and Mrs. Charlene Trekkell.

A musical program was presented by four fifth grade students. Brad Evans, Lynn Schmidt, Susan Burkart, and Meshelle Carroll sang two numbers from the musical "Fantasia", "Never Say No" and "Plant a Radish", accompanied by Mrs. Bill Phillips.

Mrs. John Dozier was appointed by the executive board to the position of Budget and Finance Chairman for the balance of the year due to the resignation of Mrs. Erwin Davlin who has been appointed to an office on the PTA Council.

The parents then visited the individual rooms and discovered some of what is being taught by the teachers in the classroom today.

Burglars Given Prison Terms

Two Amarillo men pleaded guilty Tuesday in 47th District Court here to charges of burglary and each was sentenced by Judge Gene Jordan to three years in prison.

Charles Goodman, 28, who gave his address as 213 NW 9th in Amarillo at the time of his arrest, admitted the burglary of the J. M. Simpson 66 Service Station, 5400 Canyon Drive on April 21. About $80 in cash and some credit cards were taken in the burglary.

Roger Dale Holdaway, 18, who lived at 1519 E. 11th in Amarillo at the time of his arrest, pleaded guilty to the July 29, 1968 burglary of Scotty's Miniature Golf, 7700 Canyon Drive. About $150 was taken from vending machines there.

Tucker Breaks Leg In Game

Tommy Tucker of Canyon broke his right leg in this past week's football game with Henderson Junior College at Athens.

Tucker, who was starting tackle for the Cisco College Wranglers, will be benched for the remainder of the season.

Another former Canyon resident, Dr. Ken E. Kuykendall was the doctor in charge of setting Tucker's broken leg.

ENJOY THE MUSIC OF THE STATE'S BEST - THE EAGLE MARCHING BAND

A TRUCKLOAD OF CABBAGE, fresh from the fields at Easter, Texas (south of Hereford) was prepared for homemade sauerkraut by a gathering of Umbarger Community residents last Thursday. The kraut must age about six weeks in preparation for the annual German Sausage-Sauerkraut Festival to be held in the community November 9. Pictured are Mrs. Ziegfried Bolte and Mrs. Marcella Birkenfel, right, along with other workers. Remodeling of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Umbarger is the main project for funds received from the annual festival. The front church entrance shown here has a new ramp which was recently installed along with other remodeling throughout the church.

Area Season On Pheasant Open Dec. 13

The 1969 pheasant season in the Panhandle will open on Dec. 13 for nine consecutive days, closing Dec. 21, according to Jack Parsons, wildlife supervisor for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Dick DeArment, project leader, kept careful statistics of last year's hunt for the big birds and found that they weighed in excess of two pounds each, well worth the work and walking involved.

Statistics compiled for the first two days of the hunt were conservatively expanded for an annual estimate of data on hunter and hunted in the three million acres of six Panhandle counties.

On the first two days the feathers flew, and 6,159 hunters bagged 4,248 cock birds. It might appear that some of the flying feathers were on birds untouched by the sprays of shot. The extended estimate of statistics at the end of the season revealed that approximately 26,000 hunters dropped 18,000 of the bombshell birds in the bag a hunter success of 0.69 birds per hunter.

Biologists say the birds are in good condition, and are not presently suffering from any apparent food shortage.

Bag limit on pheasant this year will be two cocks per day, four in possession after the first day's hunt. Head and feet must remain attached to the carcass.

Curb Painting Project Begins

Faith Student Center members will knock on doors throughout the city Friday and Saturday seeking jobs of painting house numbers on curbs.

The group has already covered a portion of the town and will try to reach others as soon as possible in the coming months. Black numbers are painted on a white background and the fee is $1 per house.

Eta Iota Cast Is Drama Group

West Texas State University is represented by the Eta Iota Cast on the rolls of Alpha Psi Omega honorary dramatic organization.

Two main projects for the group are the annual children's Christmas show and the awarding of a scholarship to a graduating high school senior who has done outstanding work in drama or some other phase of the theatrical arts.

Admission to the Eta Iota Cast is by invitation and completion of a pledge program. The highest academic and personal standards are prerequisites to membership, as well as outstanding contributions to the University Theatre community.

Bonnie Williams of Amarillo is this year serving as cast director. Other officers are Frank Latson of Colorado Springs, cast stage manager; Martha Raymond of Tulia, cast business manager; Tyler Tindall of Shmrock, parliamentarian; and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moore of Canyon, sponsors.

News Brief

About 25 young people were in attendance Monday evening at a "get-acquainted" social hour for the Canyon Hills Church of Christ.

Various games were played and refreshments were served, according to Don Lacy, evangelist.

Marvin Fite Scoutmaster For Scout Troop 197 Here

J. Marvin Fite has been named scoutmaster for Troop 197 of the Boy Scouts of America.

The troop is sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Canyon and the new scoutmaster began working with the group more than a year ago. Directing the troop at that time were Newton Richardson and Dwight Hardin, a student at West Texas State University.

Fite and Hardin were adult sponsors for the troop this past summer at Camp Don Harrington.

The troop meets in the Baptist Youth Activities Building each Monday night at 7 p.m. and all boys, 11 or older, interested in becoming a Boy Scout is invited to attend any of the meetings of the troop.

J. MARVIN FITE

The new scoutmaster is purchasing agent at West Texas State University and has been with the university for eleven years. He is also president of the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department and has served with that group for 18 years. He is a former member of the Canyon Lions Club.

His wife, Gerry, is a teacher of third grade at Oak Dale Elementary School in Amarillo.

The Fites have two daughters and a son. Carol is a freshman student at WT, Gail is a junior at Canyon High School, and David, 13, is an eighth grade student and member of Troop 197. He was formerly in Cub Scout Pack 66 and is now a first class scout.

Former Resident's Son Dies In Crash

Funeral mass for 7-year-old Michael Thomas was read Monday in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Amarillo.

The youth died Saturday after a traffic accident in southwest Amarillo that critically injured his mother, Mrs. Jim M. (Juanita) Thomas. She is hospitalized at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo, where her son died shortly after his arrival. She has a fractured pelvis.

Mrs. Thomas and her husband, Jim, are former residents of Canyon, where both were employees of the Canyon News.

The three-car collision occurred about 12:45 p.m. Saturday at Bell Avenue and Calumet. Mrs. Thomas' car was stopped in Bell's northbound lane to turn onto Calumet and was hit from behind by a car driven by Harold Dean Montgomery, who was not injured.

On initial impact, the Thomas car was knocked across the intersection into the path of a pickup truck driven by Lewis Don Martin, who was treated for minor injuries at High Plains.

The Thomas' small car was demolished and the other two heavily damaged. Another son of Mrs. Thomas, James, 2, was uninjured in the accident.

Michael was a second grade student at Belmer Elementary School in Amarillo. He was buried at Assumption Cemetery in Austin.

Survivors in addition to his parents and brother, are grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Thomas of Muncie, Indiana and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Horton of Austin.

Capers Have Dance Meet

Knox Day was in his usual style of calling for the Canyon Capers Monday and members and guests had a tip called by Leroy Pitt.

Guests were from the Chiefs and Squaws Club in Amarillo. They retrieved their club banner. Also a guest was Tony Thomas.

The club will soon sponsor a Halloween party.

Nominating committee includes Roger and Phyllis Dugan, Roy and Lue Reynolds, Lester and Lida Crow. Names nominated by the committee will be voted on the first Monday night dance in November and will take office at the first Monday meeting in December.

the laws pertaining to juveniles."

Woody attends all the seminars, conferences and schools on juvenile delinquency he can and has the time for, but it's not unusual for him to be lacking time enough for a decent night's sleep.

His telephone at home may ring any hour, day or night, and if he's not in, there's a good chance he's on the highway between Amarillo and Canyon because he handles juveniles in all of Randall County--not just Canyon. Woody says that ideally a juvenile probation officer should make home visits with all of his probationers on a regular basis, but one man can do only so much. He makes all the home visits he can.

"When you take on a new probationer you can generally count on taking on at least three new people you'll have to deal with.. the child, his parents, and often a step parent or grandparents."

Though much publicity is given to juvenile delinquents from poverty-stricken backgrounds, a minority of Randall County juvenile delinquents are from lower income families, according to the county juvenile probation officer.

"About 60 per cent of my case load derives from families of the middle and upper income brackets," Woody says.

He finds that the most common offenses committed by juveniles in the county are theft, shoplifting, running away from home, truancy and refusing to obey the parents.

Drug offenses and illegal consumption of alcohol are minor, Woody says, though at one time they were considerably more frequent.

"We've just about broken the glue-sniffing habit around here. We've done it mainly through education and counseling and through school programs and cooperation of parents.

"When juveniles find out the damage glue-sniffing can cause to the human body, they're not near as prone to try it."

When Woody says "we" he is referring to the many people with different agencies with whom he works closely in his day-to-day operations.

"I would very much like to express my appreciation to the Randall County Sheriff's Department, the Canyon and Amarillo Police departments, the juvenile division of the Amarillo Police Department, the school officials and to all the citizens of Randall County, especially the teenagers, for the help they've given me.

"I think we are very fortunate in Randall County to have the caliber of law enforcement officials we do."

He is also of the opinion that the younger generation is not given nearly the credit it deserves.

"We hear talk about the generation gap and how the younger generation is misbehaving, but we don't hear too much about the kids who are really doing fine.

"I find a very small per cent of the young people are misbehaving. I think we have the most intelligent generation of young people growing up now that we've ever had. To my way of thinking--they're the greatest!"

Woody ran for and was elected to the Roberts County judgeship in 1946 after seeing action in World War II in the European Theater where he was wounded.

The Roberts County voters elected him twice to the judgeship and in 1951 he went to work for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission. He was district supervisor and game warden for 11 years until 1962 when he returned to ranching near Miami.

He says when he heard Randall County had created a juvenile probation officer's post and were going to take applications he sent in his application.

"I've always been interested in working with youth," says Woody, who has been associated with numerous youth programs and the Boy Scouts Explorers in particular since 1946.

"I'm glad I got the job," Woody said last week. "It's worth all the effort if you can just succeed with one out of 10 young people who have strayed and have him or her grow up to be a useful citizen."

student will receive a ribbon and certificate.

Col. Smith said each of the honorees must possess outstanding leadership and a high moral character. He must have an aptitude and interest in the military service and must be in the upper one-third of the ROTC class and the upper one-half of the university class.

In addition, the distinguished military student must be approved by the president of the university.

Named for the honor were the following:

Mark S. Andrews of Canyon, who is commanding officer of battery A of the Artillery Battalion; William S. Barton of Borger, who is commanding officer of battery B of the Artillery Battalion; Larry D. Bruns of Denver, Colo., who is platoon leader in company A of the Infantry Battalion; Budd E. Christman of Valley Stream, N. Y., who is commanding officer of the Artillery Battalion; Larry D. Gatlin of Dumas, who is a platoon leader in troop D of the Armor Battalion; Michael J. McBroom of Canyon, who is commanding officer of company B of the Infantry Battalion; Ronald G. Miller of Follett, who is commanding officer of troop A of the Cavalry Squadron; Michael G. Parmley of Presidio of Monterrey, Calif.; Douglas V. Perry, of Plainview, who is executive officer of the Infantry Battalion; Joe D. Vela of Muleshoe, who is executive officer of the Artillery Battalion; James H. Yates of Plainview, who is deputy commander of the ROTC corps; and Louis R. Aberbathy of Converse, who is commanding officer of the Cavalry Squadron.

third floor.

Dr. G. Mason Kahn, director of the Bi-City-County Health office in Amarillo, explained to commissioners the function of his office.

Randall County pays the health office more than $7,000 annually for services.

Judge Brown asked Dr. Kahn what his office does.

The director said the health office deals in preventative medicine and is not for in-patients. He said it provides for communicable disease control, tuberculosis control, child health, crippled children, cancer control, cardiovascular control and services for other chronic ailments.

The service also inspects meat processing plants and dairies.

Commissioners awarded contracts to Imperial Chevrolet of Canyon for a 1970 Belaire in trade for a 1968 Chevrolet and to Jess Ford Co. of Canyon for a 1970 Ford for a 1965 Oldsmobile.

The autos are purchased for the Sheriff's Department.

Imperial Chevrolet bid a trade difference of $1,532 for the Chevrolet and Jess Ford bid $2,308 trade difference for the Oldsmobile.

The court tabled letting of a contract for a new electric typewriter, pending a demonstration of how the machine they wish to buy operates.

The apparent low bidder for the typewriter is Wolfe Office Equipment of Amarillo with $225, but commissioners indicated they will purchase an Adler Typewriter from Russell Stationery Co. for $329.

The court also tabled letting of contracts for 13 chairs for use in the county clerk and county tax assessor-collector offices.

A plat for Tangle Aire Estates near Lake Tanglewood in northeast Randall County was approved by the commission, with a two-year waiting period stipulated before the county will assume responsibility for roads in the subdivision.

Art Querry, developer of the estates, presented the plat. It shows 131.381 acres of land in the subdivision.

In other action, the commission cancelled several renditions dating as far back as the 1930s and voted to increase the charge on tax certificates from $1 to $2.

Leroy Hutton, county clerk, was authorized to advertise for bids for micro-filming of about 16,000 pages of material in his office.

Walden in the seventh place and needs only 57 yards to take over the sixth position, currently held by Bob Ratliff.

The fifth leading rusher, Charlie Sanders, has 1,828 yards.

Olan Thompson paced the Buff ground game at Wichita with 82 yards and caught four passes for 40 yards. Quarterback Clarence Redic connected on 10 of 22 passes for 148 yards and threw his first interception of the year.

There are no green football players on San Diego's squad with 55 of 57 team members this year being junior college transfers. The Aztec coach has given only one freshman football scholarship in the last nine years.

The talent of the Aztecs is evidenced by the fact that a pro scout at a recent game had nine of their offensive starters on his check list and five of their defensive starters.

Last week against San Jose State the starters played only five minutes of the second half. The half time score in that game was 41-7.

The San Diego quarterback hit 16 of 25 passes for 234 yards and five touchdowns while the defense intercepted six San Jose passes.

Backing up Shaw will be Brian Sipe, a red-shirt last year, who was the second leading passer in the state two seasons ago at Grossmont College.

The two quarterbacks will have a fine corps of receivers with which to work on the Buff pass defense.

So far this year, the Buffs have scored 66 points as compared to their opponents' 42. They have made 52 first downs compared to opponents' 53.

the tail," Dr. Carruth said.

Another complaint, which the dean said turned out to be legitimate, was that the university had been assigning housing based on race.

"It turned out that we were doing just that," he said candidly. "We had agreed with HEW we wouldn't but we were--well, I can assure you, we're not doing it anymore."

Turning to the white radicals, Dr. Carruth said he didn't consider the Students for a Democratic Society to be a serious menace on campus and that he looked upon the Industrial Labor League as "much more dangerous."

He told the group the Industrial Labor League was formed from dissident members of the SDS who had split away and formed their own "communist-dominated" organization.

"The members of the SDS are very much concerned about all forms of government," Dr. Carruth told the group. "They feel all governments are conspiracies and want to wipe out all institutions of society as we know them today.

"One of the criticisms of this aim, is the failure of the SDS leadership to come with something to replace these institutions. But the SDS says, 'Before we worry about that, let's get rid of all the bad things in America first.'"

He said radical groups often use "shock treatment" as a means of getting publicity and sympathy.

"They play heck with our accepted moral structure. They advocate free love, for instance, or wear long hair, dirty clothes . . . they do these things to get your attention."

He said one reason there is little in the way of a protest movement on WT's campus and little hippie influence is that most of the students feel they are consulted on campus problems. He said the rules committee at WT is made up of four students and four faculty members.

"Probably the biggest problem on our campus is the traffic congestion and there's no denying it's deplorable. But we have to do the best we can."

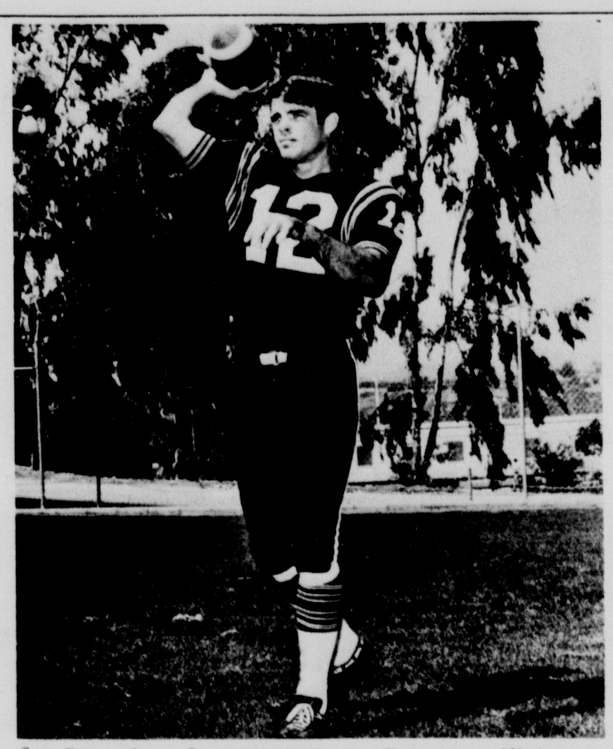
When querried about the situation on 23rd Street which runs along the campus' west side, he said, "Our students are threatening to storm city hall if something's not done about it."

He referred to the proposal of putting in left-turn lanes and signals to increase smoother traffic flow.

"It's not the city commission's fault," Dr. Carruth said. "The citizens of Canyon voted this summer not to do anything about it."

The Sam Houston Rifles, rifle team of the Reserve Officer Training Corps at West Texas State University, was defeated last weekend in a match pitting them against the Hardin-Simmons University team.

The WTSU team lost by 20 points, but were shooting with only five team members present.



San Diego State Quarterback Dennis Shaw is an All-America candidate, who throws the ball with accuracy. He has led his team to victories on all starts this season.

Kids, Inc. Win 2, Lose 2

Canyon's four Kids, Inc., teams won two games and lost two in competition Sunday against Amarillo teams.

A. J. Luquette's Canyon Little Eagles shut out Emmerson 14-0 with Hoss Ratliff running 35 yards for one touchdown, blasting his way in from three yards out for another and running for a two-point conversion. Coach Luquette also cited quarterback Ken Cooper for his fine play and improved passing. Cooper scored the Little Eagle's only touchdown in their first victory, an 8-0 shut out of Robert E. Lee.

The Little Eagles, 2-1 for the season, play Western Plateau this Sunday at Horace Mann Junior High School in Amarillo beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The Canyon Cowboys, coached by Tom Callarman, routed Wesley Community Center 20-0 Sunday. Lyndon Brazile scored on runs of 30 and 20 yards and Bob Lindsey tallied a touchdown from one yard out. Buddy Whitehead got into the scoring act with a run for two points after.

The Cowboys meet Fritch at 3:30 p.m. Sunday at Carver in Amarillo.

Belmar of Amarillo defeated the Canyon Colts, coached by Jim McBroom, 22-6. Billy Jack Wright ran for the Colts' only score. The Colts host Oakdale this Sunday at the High School Field at 2 p.m.

Oakdale last Sunday blanked Canyon's Buffalo Calves 18-0. John Braboy's Calves will try to stampede the Maverick Club here Sunday at 2 p.m.

JV-Dumas Meet Today

Coach Clark Mires' junior varsity Eagles will try to continue their winning ways this Thursday when they play ungracious host to the undefeated Dumas Demons junior varsity.

"This is a key game for us and it will be tough," Mires said this week. "I'd be happy to win it 8-6. If we can get by this one I feel we'll be over the hump. We've got a really fine group of kids and we're proud of them."

He pointed out that Dumas has won all four of their games so far this year including two victories over Phillips, which fell to the Canyon JV 56-0 last week.

"I've never seen anybody get off that orange and black bus who wasn't tough unless maybe it was the driver," Mires said.

The junior Eagles have blanked all four opponents thus far this season while racking up a total of 229 points for an average of 57 points per outing.

Eagle Player Gains Honor

Kelly Tinsley, down lineman on the undefeated Canyon Eagles' defensive platoon, gained honorable mention in the Amarillo Daily News voting for Class 3-A player of the week for outstanding play against Dalhart last Friday.

The 6-1, 190-pound junior made 9 tackles, assisted on 11 others and grabbed a mid-air Dalhart fumble and ran it to the six-yard line to set up the final Canyon score in a 19-8 victory.

BIT Show Next Week

"Star Spangled Girl" will be performed in the Branding Iron Theatre at West Texas State University October 15-18 under the sponsorship of the university speech department.

Performance times will be 8:15 p.m. each evening. Admission will be $1.50 for adults, $1 for students and university students with ID cards will be admitted at no charge.

Written by Neil Simon, the comedy was first produced on Broadway in 1966 starring Connie Stevens, Anthony Perkins and Richard Benjamin.

The student cast will include Steve Hunter, Frank Latson and Georgia Clinton and is directed by Wm. A. and Margaret E. Moore.

Tickets are available at the box office in the Fine Arts Building on campus or by calling 655-7141 extension 2224.

West Texas State University cheerleaders perform at the weekly Tuesday Buffalo Nite sponsored by Palo Duro Village. Coach Jack Harris of the Buffs spoke at the activities.

Firemen To Parade Saturday

Saturday will be a highlight of Fire Prevention Week in Canyon as equipment from the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department is exhibited in a parade at 10:30 a.m.

The parade will travel from 13th Street to 25th Street on Fourth Avenue, according to Joe Rice, fire captain.

In addition to fire equipment, local youngsters have been invited to compete in a decorated bike contest. Prizes will be awarded for first through fourth places in the bike contest and the youngsters will be invited to ride in the parade that morning.

All youngsters planning to enter the bike contest should have their bikes decorated and be at the fire station by 10 a.m. Saturday morning.

Large Turnout For Barbecue

One hundred, eighty-five persons attended the barbecue held at the Palisades Sunday afternoon with only five pounds of barbecue left.

The barbecue was sponsored by the members of the Palisades Home Demonstration Club. The affair was a fund drive aimed at raising money for the repair of the main road in the Palisades area. The profit, after expenses were paid, amounted to about $122.

Charlie Hooker and Bobby Walker were in charge of the cooking of the barbecue and they had volunteer help from among members of the club.

The feast was deemed such a success, the group have planned for another barbecue to take place within the next few weeks. Time and date will be announced later.

Former Resident Dies. Rites Set

Funeral services for W. Mack Stallings, 68, a former resident of Canyon, will be at 2 p.m. today, Thursday in Nally-Pickle Funeral Chapel at Big Spring.

Mr. Stallings died Tuesday afternoon in a Big Spring Hospital after suffering a heart attack. He was a native of Big Spring and had lived in Canyon from 1939-52, and was a salesman for Imperial Chevrolet while living in Canyon.

Burial will be in a cemetery at Big Spring.

Survivors are his wife, Nova; daughters, Mrs. Jeanne Garrett of Canyon, Mrs. Jo Ann Weakley of Vallejo, California and Mrs. Nina Buanno of Oakland, California; sons, Mack Jr. of Oakland and James of Gulfport, Mississippi; four brothers, 15 grand children and two great-grandchildren.

Restless Ones Film On Monday

Evangelist Billy Graham's film "The Restless Ones" will be shown in Canyon Monday evening beginning at 7:30 p.m. at Calvary Baptist Church.

Open to the public, the film has an accent on youth and deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teen-age crisis. The background setting for the feature length film is the 1963 Los Angeles Crusade and is a bold hard hitting approach to current social problems.

OLIVE COOPER MELIN

'Honeycomb' Review Book Topic Monday

Olive Cooper Melin will review the book "Honeycomb" by Adela Rogers St. John as the second in a series of reviews being sponsored by the Canyon Federated Club Council.

The review will be held Monday, October 13, at 8 p.m. in University Complex South, Room 101, at West Texas State University.

All proceeds from the series of reviews is going into the building fund for the Canyon City Library. Tickets at the door are $1.50 per person and the general public is invited.

Mrs. Melin was born in Dalhart and has lived in Amarillo since the age of six years. She earned the B. A. degree from the University of Texas and did her graduate work at the University of Southern California. A former English teacher, she taught at both the elementary and junior high school levels.

Mrs. Melin is a past president of the Lee Bivins and Stephen F. Austin Parent-Teacher Associations in Amarillo. Her husband, Edward L., is a partner in Cooper-Melin Music Store in Amarillo.

"I have reviewed books mainly for clubs for about 20 years," related Mrs. Melin. She is presently taking a course at Amarillo College in the library technical assistant field. Her husband has been a member of the Amarillo Public Library Board for several years.

The Melins have two children. Their daughter, Mrs. James R. Jacobs, lives in Dallas and is married to a commercial artist. The Jacobs have a two-year-old son, David.

The Melin's son, William A., is married to the former Ann Rothkrug and the couple are both students. He is attending West Texas State University presently and working parttime and his wife, Ann, attends Amarillo College on a scholarship from the Amarillo Globe-Times, where she works parttime.

Meal, Movie For Chapter

Xi Kappa Zeta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority held their first social of the year recently with a supper at Furr's Cafeteria followed by attendance at the movie "Funny Girl".

Those attending were Lucille Robinson, Sandra Wells, Claudine Peckenpaugh, Marie Manley, Wynema Brotherton, Betty Patterson and Betty Hunter.

Women Exhibit Porcelain Art

Four Canyon women will have exhibits this Sunday, October 12, at the Amaryllis Porcelain Art Club's exhibit from 1-5 p.m. in the new Amarillo Garden Center.

Exhibiting will be Mrs. L.S. Johnston, Mrs. Travis Payne, Mrs. Jack Foster and Mrs. Tom Gooch.

Gardeners Are Invited

Canyon Garden Club members and other amateur gardeners in the Canyon area have been invited to tour and exhibit at the Amarillo Garden Club's flower show to be held Saturday from 1-5 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Yingling, 3002 S. Hayden.

"The Many Moods of M'Lady" will be the theme for the show. Admission will be $1.

Local residents may enter between 8-10 a.m. on the date of the exhibit. Horticulture entries will stress roses, dahlias and chrysanthemums.

MRS. ALEX YEH AND HERBERT

Baby Shower Fetes Mrs. Yeh And Infant Son

Mrs. Alex Yeh and infant son, Herbert, were honored with a baby gift shower this week in the home of Mrs. Bill West by members of a Sunday School class of the Adult I department of the First Baptist Church.

The infant was born September 16 and weighed 6 pounds, 8 ounces at birth at Neblett Memorial Hospital. The parents are formerly of Formosa and are in this country where she earned her chemistry degree in May from West Texas State University and her husband is presently studying chemistry at the university.

Mrs. Yeh brought a large basket of brightly colored redeggs to the shower which were passed to those present. Mrs. A. K. Goodman, who has worked with Mrs. Yeh for several months on American expressions and language, explained that the "egg basket" was a tradition in Formosa where they are passed to friends on the birth of a child, similar to what Americans do as they pass out cigars on a birth.

About a dozen close friends were present for the occasion honoring Mrs. Yeh and son.

Games were played and refreshments of punch and cookies were served from a table appointed with the traditional blue and white theme.

Campus Chapel Scene Of Double Ring Vows

Miss Janis Jo May and Donald F. Hayden were united in double ring marriage vows at Joseph A. Hill Chapel on the campus of West Texas State University Saturday evening, October 4.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. May of Lubbock and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hayden of Amarillo.

Officiating was Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon, and Rev. Kenneth Keller, associate pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Amarillo.

Sherry Killingsworth served as organist and Shary Kerbel of Canyon sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "More". The chapel was decorated with tangerine gladioli and bronze pompon mums in baskets and accented with candles.

Mrs. Sunny McGinnis, sister of the bride from Lubbock, was matron of honor. Bridesmatrons were Mrs. Linda Richardson of Amarillo and Mrs. Linda Hightower of Temple. They wore full length burnt orange velvet dresses with reembroidered beaded lace inserts. The dress bodices featured a portrait neckline, elbow length sleeves and empire waistlines. They carried cascade bouquets of champagne carnations, bronze pompons and had tangerine accessories.

Gary Roth of El Paso was best man. Groomsmen were Tully Currie of Lake Tanglewood and Charles Graham of Amarillo.

Ushering were Joe May, brother of the bride from Lubbock, Mike Bush of Albuquerque, New Mexico and Tom Kimbro of Fort Worth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a camelot gown of ivory silk peau de soie and beaded alencon lace. The pearled lace bodice featured a portrait neckline and elbow length sleeves ending in natural scallops. The high-rising waistline was defined with the scalloped lace and the slim skirt repeated the jeweled scalloped lace encircling the hemline. A sleeveless coat attached at the shoulder with flat looped bows formed the chapel length train. Her bouffant veil was held to a crown of matching beaded lace camelot caplet. She carried a cascade bouquet of Frenched champagne carnations, bronze pompons and tangerine accessories centered with orchids.

A reception for the couple was held in the Methodist Student Center on campus after which the couple departed on a wedding trip to New Orleans. The bride travelled in a white leather trimmed wool dress with matching cape.

The couple will establish their home at 1002 West 11th Street in Amarillo.

A 1965 graduate of Monterey High School in Lubbock, the bride attended Texas Tech for two years and received the B. A. degree in May 1969 from West Texas State University where she was a member of Chi Omega social sorority. She is a teacher of mathematics at Fannin Junior High in Amarillo.

Graduating from Canyon High School in 1965, the bridegroom attended West Texas State University where he is a senior finance major and will receive the B. S. degree in January. He has served as president of Sigma Nu social fraternity and is a member of Scabbard and Blade fraternity. He is employed with Amarillo Supply Company.

DKG Regional Meet Set This Week-End

Women educators from several Panhandle communities will conduct a regional meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society Saturday at the James Bonham Junior High School in Amarillo.

VIRGINIA GROVE

"Tomorrow's Splendid Story Is Ours Now to Write" is the theme for the session. Numerous Canyon women educators are associated with the DKG Society and are expected to attend the meetings which begin with registration at 9:30 a.m.

Hostess chapter for the meeting will be the Zeta Delta chapter of DKG. Lamar Lively, principal of James Bonham Junior High, will give the welcome and Mrs. Bob Laney, regional director from Amarillo, will preside during the general session.

Among noted guests will be Miss Virginia Grove, state first vice president, who will address the group at the noon luncheon in the school cafeteria. Director Evelyn Laney will discuss plans for the 1970 regional.

Amarilo Chapters of DKG will discuss "Ours To Write Individually" on the morning program followed by a sing song and "Ours To Write Together" will be presented by the Epsilon Delta chapter of Littlefield on community; Delta Xi of Dimmitt will discuss the teaching profession and Gamma Iota of Plainview will participate on the program.

Regional presidents will meet Friday night at the Hickory House in Amarillo where Miss Francis White, president of the state organization, will be speaking. Miss White will be honored with a tea in the home of Mrs. Roy Begeman, 4401 W. 3rd, Amarillo from 3-5 Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Warwick Gives History

Excerpts from her book on the history of Randall County will be given by Mrs. C. W. Warwick at Wednesday's meeting of the Women's Book Club of Canyon.

The meeting, to be held in the parlor of the First United Methodist Church of Canyon, begins at 3 p.m.

Guest Day will be observed and those present will answer roll call with "the progress I have seen in Canyon".

Palo Duro MILs Meet On Friday

Palo Duro Mother-in-Law Club will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Gladys Haines, 1809 4th Avenue.

Members are reminded to furnish dish towels and other gifts to be sent to Girlstown, USA.

Variety Ring Has Meeting

Variety Ring members met at the Canyon Country Club recently with Mrs. Levi Cole as hostess.

Members answered roll call with "my favorite food to can and freeze". The guessing box went unidentified.

On the program poems were read by Mrs. May Johnson "Food For Thought", Mrs. Earl Burtz "Syrup Pepsin" and Mrs. Leonard Winters "Our Home".

Plans were discussed for a covered dish luncheon to be held October 17 at the Earl Burtz home.

Present were Mesdames Alice Black, E. P. Harding, J. P. Hammons, Earl Burtz, P. L. Pitt, Mae Johnson, Win Matsler, K. E. Hines, Levi Cole and Leonard Winters.

Mrs. Duane Guy Heads Business Of AAUW Chapter

Mrs. Duane Guy, president of the Canyon chapter of the American Association of University Women, presided Saturday afternoon at a business meeting of the chapter in the home of Mrs. W. L. Smith.

Mrs. Emerson Haraden gave the treasurer's report noting that renewals are due by October 31 and new members may pay dues at any time. Mrs. Rose Kinzer introduced guests and members and Mrs. D. R. Park was appointed as parliamentarian.

A majority of the business meeting was devoted to organizing study groups. The drama group will meet with Mrs. Fred Stoker the third Monday, October 20, at 7:30 p.m. The crafts group will meet in the home of Mrs. Claiborn Crain, 2704 2nd Avenue, Friday morning (October 10) at 9 a.m. with Mrs. Cristler Crain as group leader. The bridge group will meet the first Monday in November at the home of Mrs. Robert Wright.

It was announced that current book members need books ready by two weeks from Saturday's meeting.

A frozen lemon pudding, coffee and tea were served about 40 members present for the business session and a program by Dr. T. Paige Carruth on "legal rights of students" was given.

Graphoanalyst Speaks For USC

A graphoanalyst, Ray Walker of Amarillo, is slated to present the program Friday for the University Study Club of Canyon.

Theme for the month's meeting will be "Writin' of Texans".

The meeting will begin at 1:15 p.m. in the Girl Scout Building with Mrs. Sam Jolly, president, in charge of the business meeting.

Friendship Club Plans Picnic

Friendship Club met with Mrs. H. A. Simon Thursday with "the things we like to do best" as the roll call for members.

Mrs. Herrick Simon, president, was in charge of the business meeting as club members voted to conduct the next meeting at Turkey Track Ranch near the Canadian River where the group will have a salads picnic. The meeting, October 16, will open with the group gathering at the Herrick Simon home at 9 a.m.

Program for Thursday's meeting included article reading by Mrs. Charlie Winters on "living in a glass castle at Vancouver, British Columbia", Mrs. Leonard Winters on the "tired homemaker", and Mrs. George Colling on the "life of Will Rogers".

Present for the meeting were members, Mesdames Leonard Winters, Frank Simon, Charlie Winters, George Colling, Clarence Winters, Nell Sheets, Elmer Winters, Herrick Simon and a visitor, Ann Miller of Amarillo.

Garden Club Meets

Canyon Garden Club members will meet tonight, Thursday, at 7:30 o'clock in the home of the D.R. Weavers.

Program will be on "birds" given by Mrs. Earline Moreman.
